THE SPECULATIVE MARKETS.

Hutchinson's Wheat Prophecy Seems Likely to Be Realized.

CASH AND SEPTEMBER REACH 1.50

Shorts Growing Obstinate-More Activity in Corn-Provisions Nervous -No Material Change in Cattle-Hogs Brisk.

CHICAGO PRÔDUCE MARKET. CHICAGO, Sept. 28 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. ]-Cash and September wheat experienced another phenominal rise in price to-day, going from $1.25 to $1.50 per bushel. At that figure a lively business was done in the car lot crowd, but comparatively little trading was done in settlement of September contracts. The people who are holding out seem to be getting ready for a "grand kick." It was flatly stated on the floor by parties representing unknown lines that they would not settle at $1.50, and would not put up margins above $1.25. A technical case has been built up at every stage of the deal by Hutchinson, but the belligerent shorts say they will have no trouble in escablishing the fact that any price for wheat in this market above $1.25 will be a "corner price." They concede that with wheat at $1.15 in Minneapolis, Hutchinson may perhaps be able to enforce settlement of contracts up to $1.25. but that anything over that will be extertion. Feeling ran high to-day and considerable pitterness was shown. Hutchinson, on the other hand, intimates very broadly that the price to-morrow will be $1.75 or $2.00. He says in self-defense, or rather his henchmen say for him, that "the boys shouldn't feel hard toward him, as he he hasn't called any body for n argins and don't intend to." All the same, houses standing in the gap have been obliged to both call and put up heavy margins on open contracts and they are feeling sore over it. Shortly before 1 o'clock when September wheat was being offered in the pit at $1.50 by several parties, Hutchinson refused to sell wheat at $1.75, a bid to that effect having been made. It was subsequently stated that this was a "funny bid," being made and received as such. Hutchinson was selling wheat in settlement a minute before and a minute afterwards at $1.50, and his men were paying $1.49 for car lots. The old gentleman was very irritable most of the session, and several times was made the target of pretty plain talk by wrathful members. At 1:15 the quotation for September wheat was $1.49%. It was stated that 200 car loads of wheat from St. Louis will arrive this evening and be de-livered on September contracts, and that a 25,000 bushel lot is on the way here from Milwaukee. The speculative market was nervous all day, but the volume of trading was not abnormally large. There was very free realizing early in the day, and also toward the last of the session, the longs feeling that realizing the control of the session. that perhaps it might be best under the cir-cumstances to take the profits. The market around the opening was strong and le higher for December, May and October. December was in active request at 99%c and May at $1.01%c. There was a flood of scattering outside orders for general account. When the demand from that quarter was satisfied December worked down from $1.00% to 99% c May from $1.03\forall to $1.01\forall and October from $1.02\forall to $0.03\forall c.

The selling out of long wheat was general and on a large scale. The market rallied to $1.00 for October, 93\forall c for December and $1.01\forall for May, but toward the end the whole market weakened under free selling by Hutchinson and others and last prices were within a fraction of the lowest point of the day. The break at the last was more than Ic. December declining to 98% c and May to $1.00\footnote{100}. Last prices were 98\footnote{100}\text{c} for October, 98\footnote{100}\text{c} for December and $1.00\footnote{100}\text{s} for May. The range of prices for the day on futures was 2\footnote{100}\text{c}(000)\text{c}(000)\text{c}. The sentiment seems to favor the theory that there will be a break in prices after the September deal is off the hooks, and that accompany of the large pressure for the

and that accounted in a large measure for the generous unloading of long preperty. Should that anticipation not be realized an influx of outside business may follow—such at least is the popular belief on 'change. At the opening of the corn market there At the opening of the corn market there was a general scramble for October and November, October opening \( \frac{1}{3} \) c better and November where it closed the previous day. Seller the month was about on a par with October and the far off deliveries were firm and gained for the day from 1/2 on May to 1/2 on December and year. Active buying for an operator who is supposed to own the bulk of the corn in store was the principal cause of the advance and withstood the con-trary influences of favorable curing weather and that accounted in a large measure for the

for new corn.

In oats the feeling was rather heavy, with limited trading within a very narrow range averaging nearly steady. There was an increase in receipts and with estimated arrivals for to-morrow of 318 cars and the duliness in corn no activity was displayed. There was some changing of October contracts in May at (14) premium for the latter, with that month selling in a regular way at 28\3@ 28\4c. Cash No. 2 oats in store or to go to 283c. Cash No. 2 cats in store or to go to store were steady at 233c, with a great part of the trade in samples.

The provision trade was quite nervous. The shorts, frightened perhaps by the squeeze in wheat, opened the day with good buying for October product. The demand from this class of buyers for a time was quite urgent, and for pork the price was advanced 70c over vesterday's closing. Lard for Octo-70c over yesterday's closing. Lard for October was also marked up 12½c and short ribs 10c. The rise in October naturally affected the entire market and the boom witnessed was shared in by later deliveries to a more or less extent. As the session progressed between tent. As the session progressed, however, an easier feeling was developed. More anxious shorts having covered trade lost its main support, and as Hutchinson offered short ribs and pork freely for January prices all around receded almost as fast as they improved early. Break followed break and the closings in some instances were even under opening figures. During the last half of the day business was also comparatively moderate. Based on yesterday's final quota tions October pork closed at an advance of 10c, October lard and short ribs of 5c, No-vember pork and lard of 15c and year pork and lard 25c. Pork, lard and short ribs for January rested unchanged.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. ]-CATTLE.-There is little or nothing new to relate concerning the general market. Trade is about the same as yesterday and prices show no essential change. Some salesman that had desirable natives claimed that there was a better inquiry and a slight upturn, but such stock and such sales cut no figure in the general market, where there are so many fair to good cattle that are selling at such extremely low prices. Some of the level headed salesmen claim that since the downturn set in there has been a decline of 75c on natives and fully $1 on westerns. "But," said a man that handies large numbers, "values have touched rock bottom and the big run of westerns for the season is over. Western deliveries, bear in mind, are thirty days earlier than last year, and I am willing to wager a small sum that values will rule $1 per 100 lbs. higher before snow files."

year, and I am willing to wager a small sum that values will rule $1 per 100 lbs. higher before snow flies."

It is to be hoped he may be proved a prophet, but the chances are against him. The shipments to eastern markets are the heaviest on record, and this incident is not at all favorable for better prices here next week, for if there is a duil trade in New York less cattle will be bought in Chicago. Cow stock and all common natives are down to the lowest figures of this year or last. Rangers and Texans are also down to the lowest prices on record. Veal caives are "cheaper than dirt," as the saying is. The stocker and feeder trade rules steady, with a rather light supply and strong prices on anything good. The receipts included $,000 Texas and western cattle; choice to extra beeves, $6.25@6.85; medium to good steers, 1850 to 1500 lbs, $5.00@6.00; 1200 to 1350 lbs, $4.40@5.10; 950 to 1200 lbs, $3.50@4.50; stockers and feeders, $2.00@3.10; cows, bulls and mixed, stronger, at $1.85@2.75; bulk, $2.10@2.55; Texas steers, $2.0.@3.20; cows, $1.15@2.00; natives and hair breeds, $2.75@1.55; cows, $2.00@2.60; win-tered Texans, $2.35@3.75. Hoos—Business was brisk, with an upturn of 5@10c all around. Best assorted heavy sold at $6.40@5.50; a few fancy butcher weights at $6.35. The best mixed sold at $3.20@6.35 and common, including light mixed, $6.00@6.10; assorted light sold at $5.75@6.10.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.-[Special Telegram to THE BEE. STOCKS-At the opening the market was strong and active and there was good buying, most of the prominent traders being on the buil side. First prices were generally about the same as yesterday's close, though Omaha opened 34 higher. The grangers, Vanderbilts, Goulds and Erie were the features, a number of stocks showing some gains. Reading was a little heavy and probably depressed for the purpose. London was a seller to a considerable extent. The market was irregular and somewhat feverish after early trading, but after 11 o'clock became quiet and firmer in tone, a part of the morning's advances being subsequently lost, however, with an easier feeling prevailing. At noon it was quiet and unsettled at but slight changes from opening figures. Missouri Pacific was bought and advanced by De Silva & Slayback, selling up to $4 and closing at 83%, or 2% higher than last night. The Vanderbilt advance was attributed to inside support and the favorable outlook for traffic. Rates are to be advanced on trunk lines at once. Lake Shere went 104, closing below that figure. Michigan Central advanced 1¼ and New York Central ¾ points. Northwestern did not sell above 115%, closing at 115, where it opened. St. Paul closed at 67% @ is%, closing ot 68, or 1/8 lower, while the preferred gained 1 point. Omaha went to 42%, closing at 42. Cotton oil gained 114, Rock Island 36 and Canada Southern 196 points.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK. Cattle.

Friday, Sept. 28, 1888.
The market for beef cattle was a drag all day. The reports from eastern markets indicated a lower market for westerns, and that fact taken with the light demand mad-a very unsatisfactory market here. One o the heaviest packers was off from the market on account of receiving a train of cattle from his own ranch. A few feeders and cows changed hands at about steady prices.

The market took a sudden upward turn to day, the advance being on an average 10c, al though in some cases it was as much as 15c. The demand was good, both shipping and local, and the hogs were all sold before 10

Sheep. The receipts were heavy and both packers and shippers were liberal buyers.

Live Stock Notes.

George Boetel, Millard, was here with J. H. Emerine, Council Bluffs, was at the J. L. Avery, Battle Creek, came in with a load of hogs.

James Palmer, Fullerton, was in with a load of cattle. J. F. Griffin, Marne, Ia., was in and mar-keted a load of hogs. A. C. Smith, Fullerton, topped the market with two loads of hogs.

P. Johnson, Laramie, came in with two double decks of good western sheep. Mr. Reynolds, of the firm of Becknell & Reynolds, Elliott, Ia., was here with three Frank Hershey came in with twenty-one double decks of western sheep from Oregon and Wyoming. Mr. Morgan, of the firm of Winter & Morgan, Shelby, Ia., was among those who came in with hogs.

Omaha is becoming a better sheep market every day and no one with sheep to sell can afford to go by this market. Colonel W. H. Thompson, Chicago, came in with two loads of good native cows from Ewing, which sold at $3.40.

H. P. Piatt, of the live stock commission firm at Chicago, is the guest of his brother-in-law, G. W. Jackson, of the firm of Jackson & Co.

Among the lady visitors at the yards today were Mesdames C. A. Henderson, J. T. Clark and A. Anderson. They took a tour through the packing houses as well.

through the packing houses as well.

The well known firm of Shaw & Co., of Chicago, have made arrangements to open a branch office in the Exchange building. It will be under the management of Johnson & Christian. Reports will be received direct from the Chicago board of trade and the firm will be prepared to do a general commission business in grain, provisions, stocks, etc.

Arrangements are being made for a grand ball to be held at Armour & Cudahy's new office on Saturday evening of next week. The room is hardly large enough to accommodate over fifty couples and for that reason the invitations will necessarily be somewhat limited. Mr. Cudahy will furnish the supper for the company and as he never does anyfor the company and as he never does any-thing half way it will be a grand affair.
